A close-up, low-angle shot of a car's sunroof. The sunroof is partially open, revealing a bright blue sky with some light clouds. The sun is shining from the right side, creating a strong lens flare effect that illuminates the interior of the car. The sunroof's frame and the surrounding headliner are visible.

Sunroof

A view of the rear passenger area of a car. The seats are upholstered in a light-colored, textured fabric with dark blue leather-like accents on the seatbacks and headrests. The seats are arranged in a 2+2 configuration. The interior is well-lit, and the overall design is modern and spacious.
